From the early centuries B.C. the Romans recognized that beginnings follow endings. Their god of time, Janus, was carved over doorways to show that stepping through one door leaves another behind. This Roman coin shows Janus with two faces - one looking back and the other looking forward. They named the first month of the year January, to represent the opening of a new year. This legacy comes to our Society this year!

President's Message

Dear Members,

As with Janus, January not only begins a new year, but also the Pasadena Lapidary Society's 70th year of earth science education!

I want to thank Marcia Goetz for her outstanding service and leadership as president the past four years. She will continue her service as a Trustee on our board of directors. Marcia will also continue to chair our Annual Show in March. Please give her all the help she needs to prepare for the show in March.

I would like to thank Marcia, Trudy Krose, Carolyn Duncan, Mark and Linda Nelson for all their hard work making our annual holiday party such a success and so much fun! Trudy, Sylvia Cliffe and the hospitality committee did a fine job organizing the dinner and making the hall so festive and to Gloria Biesterfeld's donation of yellow onyx that made the bases for our awards!

Thanks to the generosity of our members, the food drive was a great success with over 300 pounds of food collected. The Nelsons delivered it to the Friends In Deed food bank and we received the thanks of the Director for making the holidays better for a lot of families.

We will repeat the food drive again in June!

This month our Program Meeting will on January 6th at 6:45pm at the library. Our speaker will be Martha Wilson with tips about Quartzsite. This a timely program since we have our upcoming trip to Quartzsite January 20th through 24th. Additional information about our trip is now available on the Society's web site, as is a listing of our 2016 officers and directors. For a current list of members, officers and directors, email your request to pasadenalapidary at aol.com.

Janus And Lapidary Societies

by Mark Nelson

So, too with our lapidary society. We have enjoyed a great year! We started with a fun field trip to Arizona's Quartzsite Pow Wow, the use of a well-equipped workshop, a successful Annual Show, great field trips and lots of friendly and interesting new members. We celebrated the excellent service and leadership of our elected officers and honored two of our members as Rockhounds Of The Year. We ended our year by being named the top lapidary society in North America!

Now we open a new door with energetic new elected officers and directors, a new and expanded field trip to Arizona's Quartzsite Pow Wow, a new workshop with even more equipment, plans for another successful Annual Show and great field trips and new members! Our lapidary society can be personally rewarding, enabling us to learn new skills, see interesting programs and to get out into the beautiful lands that surround our cities. Let's all remember Janus and open a new door by getting involved in Society activities and help make this new year as successful as the last!

The House Behind the House

Submitted by Jim Gersbach

One of my fondest memories
As I recall the days of yore
was the little house, behind the house,
With the crescent o'er the door.

'Twas a place to sit and ponder
With your head all bowed down low;
Knowing that you wouldn't be there,
If you didn't have to go.

Ours was a multi-holer, three,
With a size for everyone.
You left there feeling better,
After your job was done.

You had to make those frequent trips
In snow, rain, sleet, or fog--
To that little house where you usually
Found the Sears-Roebuck catalog.

Oft times in dead of winter,
The seat was spread with snow.
'Twas then with much reluctance,
To that little house you'd go.

With a swish you'd clear that wooden seat,
Bend low, with dreadful fear
You'd shut your eyes and grit your teeth
As you settled on your rear.

I recall the day O' Granddad,
Who stayed with us one summer,
Made a trip out to that little house
Which proved to be a bummer.

'Twas the same day that my Dad had Finished painting the kitchen green.
He'd just cleaned up the mess he'd made
With rags and gasoline.

He tossed the rags down in the hole
Went on his usual way
Not knowing that by doing so
He'd eventually rue the day.

Now Granddad had an urgent call,
I never will forget!
This trip he made to the little house
Stays in my memory yet.

He sat down on the wooden seat,
With both feet on the floor.
He filled his pipe and tapped it down
And struck a match on the outhouse door.

He lit the pipe and sure enough,
it soon began to glow.
He slowly raised his rear a bit
And tossed the flaming match below.

The Blast that followed, I am told
Was heard for miles around;
And there was poor ol' Granddad
Sprawled out there on the ground.

The smoldering pipe still in his mouth,
His eyes were shut real tight;
The celebrated three-holer
Was blown clear out of sight.

We asked him what had happened,
What he said I'll ne'er forget.
He said he thought it must have been
The pinto beans he et!

Next day we had a new one
Dad put it up with ease.
But this one had a door sign
that read: No Smoking, Please!

Now that's the story's end my friend,
Of memories long ago,
When we went to the house behind the house,
because we had to go.

For those who never had to trot out in the Cold
Just Give Thanks!!!

FIELD TRIPS

By Joe Goetz

Joe Goetz
Field Trip Chairman

It's Quartzsite Time !
January 20th - 24th, 2016

Chris Kyte
Quartzsite Trip
Leader

In January we will visit the extensive and varied rock, gem and mineral shows in Quartzsite, Arizona. Our timing is to take advantage of the annual "Pow Wow", hosted by the Quartzsite Improvement Association. Many of our members will meet there on the 20th in order to have an opportunity to see more of the shows while they are there.

The Quartzsite Roadrunners Gem and Mineral Club will have two field trips each day from the 20th to the 24th to some of their favorite collecting areas. The details to these are on the Calendar page of the web site.

Chris Kyte will lead special Pasadena Lapidary Society field trips Saturday and Sunday to some of his favorite and fruitful collecting areas. See the Calendar page of the web site for where we will collect, where to meet and what we will be looking for!

The January Program Meeting will feature plenty of time for questions and answers about these collecting opportunities!

Congratulations to Cynthia Murphy for knowing that the Cronese Basin was buried under silt and mud as the result of earthquake activity which breached the Afton Ridge allowing extreme water-flow downstream into the basin. This theory is presented by Dr. Norman Meek.

Congratulations, also, to Alyson Nishimura for knowing that Laika was the first dog in space - launched in 1957 by the Soviet Union. Prizes were awarded at the November Program Meeting!

Editor's Quiz

Juniors: How many pounds of food were donated to the Friends In Deed pantry by our Society?

Adults: How could one of John Martin's goals benefit our Society?

The answers to this month's quiz can be found in this bulletin. The first Adult and Junior Members to correctly answer these questions will win a special prize at the next Program Meeting. Email your answer to the Society's email address: pasadenalapidary@aol.com.

FEDERATION NEWS

CFMS - California Federation of Mineralogical Societies

CFMS PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

By John Martin

This is the beginning of a new year for the California Federation of Mineralogical Societies. This year's convention and Show in Placerville is going to be an exciting and interesting event. It is being held in conjunction with World Gold Panning Competition which should bring a lot of foot traffic to our show.

One of my goals this year is to bring CFMS and Local Clubs and societies closer together and to provide for more visibility of local club activities. To help accomplish this one local club will be selected to provide a one page article of their show. This may contain up to 4 pictures and text to fill one page of the monthly CFMS Newsletter. That will give clubs a way to let other clubs and societies an insight of their activities.

All of the CFMS Historical Records have been relocated from San Diego to a desert storage facility where they have temporary storage in a dry environment until a formal decision on how to make them accessible is reached.

This year we have a strong and united Executive Board to provide CFMS with pro-active and united leadership to move CFMS forward and to make it strong and a good representative for the Gem and Mineral hobbyist.

I have an open door policy and welcome your comments and concerns regarding CFMS and the Rockhounding Hobby. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact me or any of the elected officers and we will do our best to answer your question or concerns. Send them to me at cfms.president.2016@amlands.org.

Dugway Geode Beds Threatened With Closing by BLM

In December, PLS members joined with others across the country in writing to urge the BLM to renew the mining claim of "The Bug House". Members sent emails to the officials responsible and we are waiting for a report from the ALAA as to the current status.

SO YOU THINK YOU KNOW EVERYTHING

- No word in the English language rhymes with month, orange, silver, or purple.
- Our eyes are always the same size from birth, but our nose and ears never stop growing.
- Peanuts are one of the ingredients of dynamite.
- Rubber bands last longer when refrigerated.
- "Stewardesses" is the longest word typed with only the left hand and "lollipop" with your right.
- The average person's left hand does 56% of the typing.
- The cruise liner, QE2, moves only six inches for each gallon of diesel that it burns.
- The microwave was invented after a researcher walked by a radar tube and a chocolate bar melted in his pocket.
- The sentence: "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog" uses every letter of the alphabet.

JANUS Says: Beware of New Year Internet Predators!

By Linda Nelson, CPA

As one year closes and another opens I'm seeing more internet predators sending emails with subject lines such as:

Verify your email account or Verify your PayPal account.

BEWARE! The people sending these are seeking to make you think that you need to do something by year end or at the beginning of a new year. These criminals want you to open the email - at which time some will implant a virus when you open the email and invade your computer, looking for bank accounts, passwords and to send phony emails to your email friends in order to infect them.

Do Not Open these emails - promptly click them to your spam folder.
